

CONTENTS

Preface	v
Acknowledgements	vii
Daniel Kubat Introduction	1
 Part I - Return migration and the home countries
 A. National impact of returns
Jean-Pierre Garson The role of return migration in Algerian economic development in the 1980's	11
Georges Abou-Sada Return migration and the Tunisian labor market	15
Luciano Berrocal The Spanish Euromigration: returnees and the domestic labor market	21
Eduardo de Sousa Ferreira — José J. R. Leite Pereira Portugal's accession to the EEC and the migration balance	27
Emilio Reyneri — Clara Mughini Return migration and sending areas: from the myth of development to the reality of stagnation	31
Ross Fakiolas Return migration to Greece and its structural and socio-political effects	37
 B. Local impact of return
Patricia Goldey Migration, co-operation and development: an examination of a pilot project in Portugal	45

Ema Serra-Santana
Return of Portuguese: economic goals or retention of one's identity?	55
Carlota Solé
Return of internal migrants from Catalonia	57
Maria Luisa Gentileschi
Return migrants to Sardinia: rural and urban differences	61
Elena Saraceno
Return migration in Friuli-Venezia Giulia	67
Robert L. Vivolo
Emigration and agriculture in a Sicilian village	73
Russell King — Jill Mortimer — Alan Strachan
Return migration and the development of the Italian Mezzogiorno: a research report	79
Mirjana Morokvasić
Strategies of return of Yugoslavs in France and the Federal Republic of Germany	87
Klaus Unger
Occupational profile of returnees in three Greek cities	93
Czarina Wilpert
Returning and remaining: return among Turkish migrants in Germany	101
Ali S. Gitmez
Geographical and occupational reintegration of returning Turkish workers	113
C. Policies of integration of returnees
Claudio Calvaruso
Return migration to Italy and the re-integration of returnees	123

Luigi Favero — Graziano Tassello
Schooling of children returning to Italy: problems in the system	129
Silva Meznarić — Peter Klinar — Niko Tos — Franc Zizek
An action program to attract Slovene workers to return home	137
Mladen Vedris
Policies for the return and work re-integration of Yugoslav migrant workers	141
Ivo Baucić
Ten year experience in planning and implementing the return of migrants in Yugoslavia	147

Part II - Return migration and the host countries

André Lebon
Return migration from France: policies and data	153
Catherine Wihtol de Wenden-Didier
Return migration from France and the Franco-Algerian agreement of 1980	171
Heiko Körner
Return migration from the Federal Republic of Germany	175
Tomas Hammar
Dilemmas of Swedish immigration policy: they were invited to stay permanently - do they want to return?	187
Tom Sandlund
Economic change and migration: the Finnish case	201

Part III - Perspectives on return migration

A. Historical antecedents

Adam Walaszek
Return migration from the USA to Poland	213

Keijo Virtanen
Return migration of the Finnish overseas	221
Wim Blauw — Joed Elich
The return of Dutch emigrants from Australia, New Zealand and Canada	229
B. Theoretical stances in explaining return migration
The OECD Secretariat
The OECD and return migration: note on the role and activity of an intergovernmental agency in the study of return migration	235
Rita L. Chepulis
Return migration: a theoretical framework	239
Joseph Velikonja
Geography of return migration	247
Elizabeth McLean Petras
Economic consequences of migration and return	251
Demetrios G. Papademetriou
Return to the Mediterranean littoral: policy agendas	259
Anthony H. Richmond
Explaining return migration	269
Rosemarie Rogers
Return migration in comparative perspective	277
Cumulative Bibliography	301
Name Index	347
Subject Index	351
Program of the Conference	357
About the Authors	363