

Contents

I Part: II International Forum on Migration and Peace

Preface .....	i
Opening Remarks of the Second International Forum on Migration and Peace ..... 3
Leonir Mario Chiarello, Executive Director, SIMN
Opening Session .....	5
Angelino Garzón, Vice-President of Colombia
Neo-Liberalism's New Workforce: The End of a Dream? ..... 9
Stephen Castles, Professor and Research Chair in Sociology,             University of Sydney
Integration: Building Inclusive Societies (IBIS).....21
Thomas Uthup, Research &amp; Education Manager,             UN Alliance of Civilizations
The Bicentennial of the Independence of the Ibero-American Republics: The Role of Migration and Democracy in Peaceful Coexistence .....33
Araceli Azuara Ferreiro, Executive Secretariat for Integral Development, Organization of American States
The Commitment of the International Committee of the Red Cross with Colombia's Displaced Population .....37
Christophe Beney, Director of International Committee of the Red Cross in Colombia
Migration, Internal Displacement and Conflict: The Case of Colombia.....42
Fernando Puerto, Head of Evaluation Projects, International Organization for Migration (IOM), Colombia

New Political-Judicial Perspectives of Citizenship in the Context of Migration and International Peaceful Coexistence ....	50
Ambassador Johnny Young, Executive Director, Migration and Refugee Services, Conference of Catholic Bishops of the United States
Migration as a Consequence and a Cause of Conflicts in the Recent History of the Democracies .....	55
Miriam de Figueroa, Representative of Colombia, United Nations Children Fund (UNICEF)
ILO Commitment and Possible Policy Responses on International Migration .....	64
Pierre Martinot-Lagarde, Special Advisor for Socio-Religious Affairs, International Labor Organization
Declaration of Bogotá.....	69
II Part: III International Forum on Migration and Peace
Selected Articles of the Second International Forum on Migration and Peace.....	73
Opening Remarks.....	75
Leonir Mario Chiarello, Executive Director, SIMN
Opening of III Forum on Migration and Peace .....	78
Rafael Fernández de Castro, Director of International Relations, Autonomous Technological Institute of Mexico (ITAM)
Opening Ceremony .....	83
Filipe Calderón Hinojosa, President of the United States of Mexico
Migration is not an Option, But a Strength.....	95
Oscar Arias Sánchez, Former President of the Republic of Costa Rica
Migration Policies of Chiapas .....	101
Juan Sabines Guerrero, Governor of the State of Chiapas
Sovereignty in Service to Human Security .....	113
Donald Kerwin, Executive Director, Center for Migration Studies of New York

Migrations in the Geostrategic and Legislative Context of the Central American Region .....	139
Mauro Guzmán, President of Migration Commission, Congress of Guatemala
Integrating Immigrants into German Society.....	143
Thomas Kufen, Minister and Coordinator of Migration and Integration, North Rhine-Westphalia, Germany
Safe International Migration .....	150
Esther Olavarria, Deputy Assistant Secretary of Homeland Security for Policy, Department of Homeland Security, USA
Public Security in Brazil: Dilemmas and Perspectives.....	154
Luiz Eduardo Soares, Professor, University of Estado do Rio de Janeiro and Coordinator of the Management and Policies of Public Safety Program, University of Estácio de Sá
Human Rights of Migrants Under the International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of their Families.....	162
Noemy Barrita Chagoya, Secretary of the Committee on Migrant Workers, Human Rights Treaties Division, United Nations Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights
Western Union: Creating Shared Value .....	167
Victoria Lopez-Negrete, Senior Vice President and Manager for North America of Western Union
Externalizing Problems with Regards to Migration The Case of Mexico.....	170
Father-Flor María Rigoni, Director of Casa del Migrante - Albergue Belén, Tapachula
Declaration of Mexico.....	177
Appendix I .....	185
Program of the II International Forum on Migration and Peace
Appendix II.....	191
Program of the III International Forum on Migration and Peace	